

Name: _____

Rubric for Evaluation of 'Student Notebook'

Your "Student Notebook" will count as a test grade. It will be graded based on this evaluation rubric. Read the criteria carefully and try to match your work to the "Well Done" indicators described below.

Behavioral Objective The student will:	INDICATORS			Rating
	Well Done (3 points)	Improving (2 points)	Needs Work (1 point)
Organize and neatly store class work.	All required class work is present, neatly organized and stored in notebook.	Most required work is present, neatly organized and stored.	Some work is present, organization needs improvement	x10
Complete high quality class work and notes.	All class work is present, complete and demonstrates high quality effort, i.e. neatness, critical thinking, proper	Most work is present & complete and demonstrates neatness & improving quality	Some work is present; some work is incomplete, neatness & quality need improvement	x10
Keep his / her journal up to date with entries at least once per week, which reflect the use of process skills and critical thinking.	Journal entries are up-to-date, at least one per week, and entries demonstrate that the student uses process skills, and critical thinking	Journal entries are up-to-date but some are superficial OR some are not up to date but those present demonstrate process skills and critical thinking	Journal entries are not up to date, those present are superficial and do not demonstrate the student's use of process skills or critical thinking	x10

Comments: _____

A. Student's Total Points: _____

B. Total Possible: 90 points

C. Final Grade _____

