Report Requirements for Science Display Projects

Title page (do not include your name, only your number, grade, school)	2 pts
Table of contents with page numbers	3 pts
Abstract (you will need 2 typed copies, one inserted here and one loose with number, grade, school)	15 pts
Introduction	15 pts
o Statement of purpose/problem/question o Explain why you wanted to create this particular display o Research
o Reflection of how the research helped you create and understand the display Display	15 pts o Materials including amounts o Step by step procedure (may include pictures) followed to create the display o Be sure to include how you collected items for the display o Be sure to include how the display items are sorted or categorized and why o Safety precautions
Data	15 pts
o List the items in the display including categories for sorting Conclusion	15 pts
o Summary of what you learned by creating this display o Summary of any new questions or ideas you now have after creating the display o Discuss possible errors or what could be changed next time o What would you do different next time? What else could be done to learn more about the display if you had more time?
o How does your experiment apply to something beyond science fair?
Sources (2 sources, documented in MLA format)	10 pts
Acknowledgements	10 pts
Total:	100 pts